RIOTING IN MICHIGAN

SERIOUS SCENES AT SAULT STE. MARIE.

Discharged Employees of the Lake Superior Consolidated Company Make Trouble—Troops Called Out.

Detroit, Sept. 28.—A special to the Evening News from Sault Ste. Marie says: Troops have been ordered out to control a mob who are charged with rioting in the Canadian Soo. The police are unable to cope with the rioters. A mob of discharged employees of the Consolidated Lake Superior company, after being put off with promises when they demanded their wages, this morning broke away from all restraint the police could exert and smashed every window in the office building of the company, charged upon the street cars and demanded that the conductors and motormen join them. They were only prevented from doing further damage by a clever ruse of one of the company's officials, who turned in a fire alarm to divert their attention. Almost every man in the crowd was armed and in an early mood. A determined assault was made upon the entrance building, but the door was defended by those inside, who fired a large number of shots, none of which took effect. Last night a hardware store was broken into and every gun, revolver and considerable ammunition stolen. The local militia company, which had been called out, was totally incapable to cope with the situation and local officers have telegraphed to Toronto for more troops. All saults have been ordered closed. The mob is now marching down upon a saloon near the company's works, whose owner engaged the men by offering to cash their checks for ten cents on the dollar. A crowd of idle men have filled the downtown streets and more rioting is sure to ensue, as the police are helpless and the town is completely terrorized.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 28.—The Canadian Soo has been the scene of serious rioting by discharged employees of the Consolidated Lake Superior company all day and the situation is very grave. The assault upon the office building by a mob this afternoon before the arrival of troops was successful and a mass of frenzied rioters secured possession of the ground floor of the building, destroying everything movable that came in their path. The office staff with drawn revolvers prevented the mob gaining access to the upper floors of the building. Every window and door in the building was smashed in. Arrival of troops on the ground armed with ball cartridges served to restore some semblance of order. The rioters then contented themselves with throwing stones at the building and hurling invectives at the soldiers, who established a "dead line" and prevented any approach toward the building by the rioters. The special animus of the mob seemed directed at Mr. Coyne, who is at present in charge of the company's works. Late this afternoon the leaders of the mob held a conference and demanded the company to house the men in their hotel and boarding house, and feed them until money for their wages is forthcoming. In order to appease the crowd this demand was granted and the men have taken possession of the white house, a large boarding house operated by the company. Provisions are being sent there to feed them. It is estimated there are 2,000 men in the Soo to night and these are reinforced by all the idle men in town. The local police force is being strengthened and armed and has been instructed to use revolvers whenever necessary.

The men held a meeting to night to discuss the situation. The meeting was quiet and orderly. An unsuccessful effort was made to day to send a body of men over to the American side to put the street railway plant out of commission. On account of this rumor the local company of state troops were mobilized at the armory and extra police sworn in. At battalion of regulars is expected from Toronto to morning.

New York, Sept. 28.—Charles H. Tweed, of Speyer & Co., says the appointment of a receiver for the Lake Superior Consolidated company will not interfere with the sale of the company's securities Oct. 1. Tweed denied knowledge of the report that $5,000,000 cash had been raised to satisfy the Speyer claim.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 28.—John C. Barruth, of Philadelphia, president of the International Title and Trust company, was today appointed receiver for the Consolidated Lake Superior company. His bond was placed at $10,000.

A telegram was received to night from Premier Ross, of Ontario, in which he says: "The government will in every way possible protect the interests of the workmen in the various industries of the Consolidated Lake Superior company with holding subsidies, and in other ways, if necessary, insist on a settlement of all claims for wages, prior to everything else."

SCHOOLS OPENED.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 28.—Twelve hundred schools in Porto Rico were opened to day and 60,000 pupils received.

THEY REFUSE TO PLAY

Musicians of Chicago Will Not Take Part in Centennial Parade.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Marchers in the big centennial parade to morning night will be compelled to tramp over the route without a musical note to cheer them. The Musicians' union to night positively refused to take part in the parade or to have anything whatever to do with the centennial celebration if the Marine band of Washington is to play at the mass meeting in the auditorium Thursday night, which is to be the final act of the celebration. The union declares its constitution forbids members to have anything to do with any event which enlisted men in government service take place. The union therefore demanded the invitation to the Marine band be withdrawn or union musicians would decline to furnish music for the parade, for banquet of mayors Wednesday night, or for any other part of the centennial celebration.

The committee on arrangements for the centennial informed the union to night that the invitation to the Marine band would stand, no matter what action was taken by local musicians. The union at once decided it could not recede from the position it had taken and it so informed the committee. It was decided by the committee to go ahead with their plans just as though there were no such thing as music. It was not the intention of the committee to use the Marine band for anything but a mass meeting Thursday night.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—The United States Marine band will fill its engagement at the Auditorium theatre mass meeting Thursday according to the centennial banquet committee, even if every Chicago musician refuses to take part in the exercises. Organized musicians have taken a strong position against working with "enlisted men in the United States service." Implications now are the parade to morning night will be accomplished without music.

TEMPORARY VICTORY

Bridgeport, Conn., Sept. 28.—A temporary victory was scored to day by defendants in the suit of D. E. Loewe & Co. hat makers of Danbury, who are backed by the American Anti-Boycott association, against the officers and Federation of Labor and the Hatters' union. Judge Wheeler, of the superior court reduced the amount of the attachment to $20,000. This was a very substantial reduction, as the real estate covered by the attachment is held at an assessed valuation of $128,000 and bank accounts of individual defendants aggregated $2,000. This hearing was on motion by counsel for defendants for a reduction of the amount of the attachment, for order for substitution of bond for property attached and for order requiring oral examination of members of the firm of D. E. Loewe & Co., as to the actual amount of damage sustained by the firm in consequence of the strike and boycott.

Answering a motion for the statement of the damage sustained, chief counsel for the Anti-Boycott association filed a motion showing a loss up to the first of last January of about $200,000 and that Loewe's business since had been run at a loss on account of the boycott.

SITUATION UNCHANGED

Affairs at Beirut Remain Quiet.

But There is a Feeling of Uncertainty—American Marines Ready to Land at a Moment's Notice.

(Correspondence of Associated Press.) Beirut, Syria, Tuesday, Sept. 8.—As this dispatch is mailed the situation at Beirut remains unchanged, there being a great feeling of uncertainty. A correspondent of the Associated Press called on board the United States cruiser Brooklyn and San Francisco yesterday and found them armed camps. The blue jackets and marines were in readiness to land at a moment's notice, ammunition filled their belts and arms were stacked on deck. Rear Admiral Cotton informed the correspondent he was prepared to give Americans and Europeans in general the fullest protection possible. Guards to watch American mission property here were furnished by the government last night. Had the governor refused Admiral Cotton stood prepared to land 500 men if necessary. The American ships played their searchlights on the city, illuminating not alone the property of the Syrian Protestant college, but also dark alleys and by-ways frequented as a rule by shady characters. Foreign residents had not at the beginning of the trouble felt any great personal danger, but the attempt to assassinate American Vice Consul Magelsen, followed by an attempt of an armed Musselman with two accomplices to force an entrance to the home of an American resident, were incidents not calculated to give any one too great a sense of security, and the arrival of the American cruisers in the midst of these troubles brought great relief, especially to foreign residents of the city. It is difficult for a native Christian to understand why his people are permitted to be put to death when a shot or two from the cruisers lying in the harbor and representing a Christian nation strong and mighty, might solve the whole question. He does not stop to reason about international law, rights of other nations and policies of conservative governments.

According to a dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger prominent Macedonians are urging the revolutionary leaders to discontinue the uprising.

London, Sept. 28.—A correspondent of the Times at Constantinople telegraphs that Great Britain has made a vigorous protest against the crimes committed by the Turkish troops, but that she apparently does not feel herself strong enough to break down the opposition of Germany, Russia and Austria and insist upon real instead of paper reforms in Macedonia.

Macedonia, Sept. 28.—The Times learns from a trustworthy source that the palace committee at Yalidz Kloek has recommended all Bulgarians captured in the future shall be shot. It is stated that the sultan holds the same view and necessary orders have been issued.

MIMIC WARFARE

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 28.—After a day spent in maneuvering among the hills, the first of the mimic battles at the West Point encampment ended with the apparent advantage in favor of the "Brown" army. Conditions prevailed were those governing proper employment of advance and rear guard by the armies. The problem was: Blue army having been defeated by Brown army, fell back to Louisville, its base point. Here it secured heavy reinforcement and turned on the Brown army, which retreated towards its base at Nashville. The advance guard of the Blue army expected to cripple the Brown's rear guard. The Brown rear guard was not only able to forestall the enemy's attack, but to do it with a trivial loss. The chief incident of the day was the capture of Captain Mitchell, of the signal corps and a small detachment of his men by a troop of the Seventh cavalry.

YELLOW FEVER

Assuming an Alarming Phase in Laredo, Texas—The City is Quarantined.

Laredo, Texas, Sept. 28.—Two deaths and twelve new cases of yellow fever are reported, showing the epidemic to be on the increase and citizens are fleeing from the city in all directions. The daughter of the Mexican tollmaster Juan Cortinas, died late Sunday afternoon and another Mexican woman also died of the disease.

This city presents a deserted appearance. It is estimated by the authorities that nearly 4,000 people have fled since the beginning of the scare.

The city is quarantined again in all directions in the state, and no person can get beyond the limits of Webb county. The work of placing the city in a thoroughly sanitary condition is being effectively and scientifically carried on under the direct supervision of Dr. Guterres and a corps of expert assistants.

The situation in Nuevo Laredo is unchanged, no deaths or new cases having been reported. Dr. Mariano Trevino, a Mexican government yellow fever expert, is in charge. The Trevino believes that within eight days he will have stamped out the fever.

The Mexican custom house authorities have been temporarily moved to Lampasas, where all incoming baggage and freight over the National railway is examined, thus permitting trains to run through to Laredo without stopping at Nuevo Laredo.

New York, Sept. 28.—The validity of the indictment against former Congressman Edmund H. Driggs, of Brooklyn, and George F. Miller, of New York, agent of the Brandt-Dent Automatic Cashier company, charging them with participation in the postal frauds, was upheld in a decision handed down to day by Judge Thomas in the United States district court in Brooklyn. Driggs was charged with receiving money while congressman for furthering the interests of the Automatic Cashier company and Miller was accused of paying money to corrupt a congressman.

TAKE UP MILLER CASE

Washington, Sept. 28.—The attitude of the Central Labor union towards President Roosevelt came up for discussion at a meeting of that body to night in connection with the case of W. A. Miller, assistant foreman in the bindery of the government printing office, in which the union has taken an active interest. After the meeting it was stated by one of the officers that the union felt its action in the Millers case had been misrepresented, it was said the union was not waging a political campaign against the president, but its members thought they had a right to petition and to request other labor organizations to petition the president to rescind his action in the Miller case.

MYSTERY SOLVED

Peoria, Sept. 28.—The hermit, Alexander Holton, who disappeared from his home near Home, Ill., three weeks ago, has returned, and the mystery of a lifetime is revealed. Mr. Holton came to Peoria county many years ago, and established himself upon a small farm between Rome and Chillicothe. From that time he lived the life of a hermit. He visited no one, and no one visited him. His farm prospered and he was known to be saving money, but no one knew where it went, for he kept no bank account and never left his home except on business.

Early in September he disappeared. His anxious neighbors ventured, about a week later, to break open the door of his cabin. With one exception they found everything in order. Next the wall on one side a wide space of flooring had been torn up, revealing a small pit. The cavity was lined with thin sheets of lead, such as is found on tea chests. The lead bore faint marks like the impressions of coins. Many of the neighbors, fearing foul play, searched the woods near his home.

But their apprehensions were put to flight by his reappearance last Saturday. At first he would tell nothing about his absence, but finally the long reserve of years was broken and he related the romantic history of his life.

While still a young man he had loved a woman so fondly that rather than let her bear the suspicion of a crime he took the blame upon himself. He served out his penalty of two years in prison. Then coming west among strangers, he undertook to earn and restore the money which he had never stolen, that he might set himself right with the man who had lost it. Many years passed before his aim could be accomplished. Then three weeks ago he took the sacred sum back to his old home in New York city, and found that the old man for whom the money was intended was tottering upon the brink of the grave. The girl whom he had loved had been long dead, but before her death she had confessed all. The old man would not take the money, but, instead, begged his pardon for the unintentional wrong.

There is only one other similar institution in the world, which is located in London.

BRIDGE WORKERS.

Kansas City, Sept. 28.—To day's International Structural and Bridge Workers' association was taken up entirely with routine affairs. The Parks crowd helped clear up the small business of the gathering and no signs of the fight between the two factions promised yesterday were visible. President Buchanan made an appeal for harmony and his talk had effect, at least temporarily, of quieting the New Yorkers.

QUICK ACTION.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Quick action will be taken by Secretary Moody on the protest of Paymaster Harry E. Biscoe, against the arraignment by the court, of which Biscoe was a member, from the inadequate sentence imposed on Assistant Paymaster Rishworth Nicholson for insulting and attacking a German consul at Chetoo. The statement shows a marked increase in immigration from Austria-Hungary, Denmark, Finland, Germany, England, Italy, Russia, Scotland and Wales. A slight decrease is noted in immigration from Sweden, but Norway shows an increase. Chinese immigration increased slightly. There were 519 immigrants debarked, of whom 545 were paupers, 156 diseased, 6 convicts, 7 polygamists, 35 contract laborers and one albatross. Sixty-six were returned one year after landing. The increase in immigration for the first two months of the present fiscal year was 38 per cent.

BROOKLYN RIOT

New York, Sept. 28.—After one of the most riotous scenes ever enacted in a political meeting in Brooklyn, the Republican county slate made by Former Lieutenant Governor Woodruff was smashed to night and Henry Belden Ketchum was nominated for district attorney of Kings county in place of George Fellott, who was Woodruff's candidate. While the convention was in an uproar and fighting had begun in the hall, Ketchum attempted to withdraw his name and had his clothing literally torn from his body by his partisans, who attempted to drag him from the room to prevent his withdrawal. In the street Ketchum fainted. The noise of the riot drew the police to the hall and they charged down the center aisle clubbing right and left, forcing the delegates in to their seats and separating those who were fighting. Woodruff was drawn into personal encounter and was roughly handled.

The friends of Rev. G. R. McElfresh will deeply regret that his condition is such that it has been deemed necessary to take him to Passavant hospital for treatment. Thomas Hughes has returned home after a stay in the northern part of the country, including Manitoba, North Dakota and other upper districts. Like all sensible people, he comes back better pleased than ever with central Illinois. He says about two weeks ago, in Jamestown, N. D., he awoke to find a foot of snow on the ground and things damp and chilly generally.

Just think of 117,000 animals landing in Chicago in one day and then say it isn't a large city and this a big country. The list reported was 32,000 hogs, 40,000 cattle and 45,000 sheep. The capacity of the great packing plants to handle the bulk of these receipts is also something enormous. Some of the animals are sent east and to Europe some are bought for feeders, but the great majority are handled by the big packers of the great city.

BELLES LETTRES.

The Belles Lettres society held its annual reception for the faculty, students and former members Monday afternoon at the Woman's college. A large number of guests were present and the hours from 2 to 5 were pleasantly spent. The reception room and society hall were prettily decorated for the occasion. Potted plants and cut flowers were greatly in evidence and were combined with the society's colors in a most pleasing manner. Dainty refreshments were served and a most delightful time enjoyed by all present.

EDUCATION

SOCIETY

WILL OBSERVE 70TH ANNIVERSARY

Monday Evening, Oct. 4th., at Academy Hall—Oldest Organization of Women in the Country—Interesting Program in Course of Preparation.

The Ladies' Education society, or as it was originally called, the Ladies' Association for Educating Females, organized Oct. 4, 1833, and incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois, will observe the seventieth birthday of the society with appropriate exercises Monday, Oct. 4, at Academy hall. The society is the oldest organization of women in the country and is by many years the predecessor of the first Woman's club.

The object of the society when formed was "to encourage and assist young ladies to qualify themselves for teaching." The first published report of the proceedings of the society appeared in October, 1834, published by Calvin Goudy.

The first officers were: Mrs. C. Tillson, president, Hillsboro; Miss S. C. Crocker, vice president, Jacksonville; Mrs. C. W. Baldwin, secretary, Jacksonville. Among the persons mentioned as taking part in the first annual gathering are the following familiar names, men and women who were actively identified with the early life and history, not only of this community, but of the state at large: Joel Catlin, Rev. T. Baldwin, William Brown, Thomas Lippincott and Prof. J. B. Turner.

The following is taken from the first secretary's report: "Every age has its distinctive features. Among the more prominent of the present is a spirit of excitement and activity. A new and uncommon interest is felt in everything which relates to the improvement of society or the happiness of man."

"Benevolent societies of various descriptions are springing into life and the all absorbing object with the good and great appears to be the elevation of human character. It would seem that there had always been some doubt as to the place woman was destined to occupy in the world. Savage and barbarous nations have wrested from her the hope of immortality, consigned her to mental and moral midnight and the most degrading slavery. Are not her character and the relations she sustains in life, sufficient indications that she was designed for some important sphere of usefulness? The tender buds of immortality are committed to her keeping—she must nourish and protect the opening blossom. It is in the nursery, the infant play ground, and at the domestic fireside, that she imparts those precepts and instills those principles which grow with the growth, and strengthen with the strength, and which give character to the man. In minds impressed with these views this society had its origin. A year since several ladies associated for the purpose of encouraging and assisting young ladies to qualify themselves for teaching, and in this place alone five young ladies were assisted by the society during the year."

It appears from the treasurer's report the first year showed funds received to be $246.40.

A few facts from an article that appeared in the Annals of Education will serve to show that there was an ample field for the new effort that was just being started. Pennsylvania has but one in three of its children in school; Kentucky one in nine; taking the ratio of Pennsylvania for the southern and western states there are not less than 1,400,000 children destitute of common school instruction. In the year 1830 there were forty-six counties in one of our western states in which there was not a single female teacher." Secretary Baldwin closes his report with the following exhortation: "Let us take possession and labor until we have a nation of educated mothers and well qualified teachers; till the cloud of mental darkness which now hangs over us is rolled away, and the light of science and religion shines in unbroken splendor."

The high purpose which is here given expression has ever animated the efforts of the society and from 1833 until the present, each year has found a consecrated band of noble women meeting, planning and raising funds to carry forward this grand and noble work.

The success they have achieved is too well known to need recital here and many are the women throughout the land who have been aided and assisted, and whose lives have been broadened through the means provided by this organization.

The last report of the secretary, Mrs. E. C. Lambert, shows that they are at present assisting twenty-one young women located in five different states.

The present officers of the society are: President, Mrs. H. W. Milligan; vice president, Mrs. W. H. H. Ring; secretary, Mrs. E. C. Lambert; treasurer, Miss M. R. Catlin; managers, Mrs. A. C. Wadsworth, Mrs. W. D. Sanders, Mrs. E. H. Moore, Mrs. Mary Nolte, Miss Elizabeth Rawlings, Miss Mary Dunlap, Mrs. Brayton Smith, Mrs. Clifford W. Barnes. Finance committee, Miss M. E. Catlin, Mrs. Mary Nolte and Mrs. Rayley Moore.

PATIENT ESCAPES

William Whitten Leaves Oak Lawn By Night—Effort to Locate Him.

William Whitten, who has been a patient at Oak Lawn sanatorium, escaped from his room Friday night and all efforts to locate him have failed. Whitten is 19 years of age and his home is at Brimfield, Ill. He has not been accounted violent, but lately has been disturbed with the delusion that he is being persecuted. Sometime Friday night Whitten succeeded in unfastening his window and making his escape. He is a man who weighs 160 pounds, has dark eyes and hair and when last seen was wearing a dark suit and hat. Mr. Sharpe has offered a reward of $25 for information leading to the location of the wanderer.

MORGAN COUNTY HORSES.

There were nearly a hundred pilgrims from this city to the state fair Monday, and with pleasant weather the attendance will increase during the remaining days. There were but two harness races on the card and the first race was called at 12:30 and all racing was over by 4 o'clock. The first harness race was the 2:30 trot, with twelve entries and all started. The race was won by Crescent, E. J. Knapp (Tapp), in straight heats; Baraja, J. J. Shaw (Shaw), second, and Kathryn R. Charles S. Rannells, (Kirby), third, purse, $600. The time was 2:20½, 2:20¾ and 2:21¼.

The second harness race, the 2:30 pace, had a field of fourteen starters and was also won in straight heats by Effie Afton, J. O. Vosseller, (Kirby); Red Tell, A. T. Steelman, (Erwin), second; Bon Joy, E. J. Knapp (Tapp) third. Purse $600. Red Tell was conditioned by Jack Coker. The time was 2:15¼, 2:16¾ and 2:17¾.

From first day indications it certainly looks as though Morgan county was going to maintain her well known reputation and land her share of the state fair premiums. With one horse a winner and the other inside the money in the two harness races held, is indeed a fine showing.

MAN AND MONEY MISSING.

Fairbury, Ill., Sept. 27.—J. P. Stephens, a merchant at Weston, five miles west, came to this city yesterday, drew $475 from the bank and apparently started to Weston, which place he failed to reach. Some time after he had gotten the money a stranger drove the horse in great haste into a livery barn here, and requested that his rig should be taken care of, as he was going to Peoria and return to day.

When Mr. Stephens failed to return home last night his family grew uneasy and started out to look for him. They identified the horse and buggy left by the stranger as being that driven by Mr. Stephens yesterday, and the supposition is that the stranger saw him draw the money, asked for a ride to Weston with him, and when out in the country killed him. Searching parties from Weston and this city have been hunting and the sheriff of this county is trying to solve the mystery. Stephens had nearly $1,000 with him.

PHYSICIAN DEAD.

Dr. J. W. Akers, a well known medical practitioner of Curran, died at his home Monday morning. Dr. Akers had recently returned from Colorado, where he went for the benefit of his health. He has resided in Curran for some years past. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Narcissa Dunn, but no children.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Jacksonville Citizens Show the Way

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back as the annoyance of urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes or any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Jacksonville citizen says:

F. A. Kaule, of 803 East Independence avenue, engineer at the Davis & Snyder Ice plant on North Main street, says: "After being cured myself by Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Dr. H. Lee Hatch's drug store I recommended them to a friend who was suffering severely and a few days after seeing him almost as well as ever he said 'Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid remedy.' I had such heavy beaings, pains in the loins, that I could hardly get up and I stooped down to do anything my back felt as if it would almost break before I could get straightened up. Medicine did not do me any good. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills recommended I made up my mind to try them. I experienced a soothing sensation through the loins after the first few doses and in a short time the aches and pains disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The physical department was alive yesterday afternoon with the Juniors, who were there in large numbers, it being the first class work this fall. Physical Director Coughlin's expectations were exceeded by the large crowd and it is assured now this will be the largest winter's work in the junior department. The class will meet Wednesday from 4:30 to 6 p.m. and Saturday morning from 9 to 11. These days find many mothers interested in having their boys getting a systematic course in gymnasium work and the result is an increased membership. Daily young men, too, are enquiring about the different courses to be taught in the night school and the enrollment increases in all classes. Mr. McCauley will be at the rooms Thursday and Friday evenings to consult with those who want to take up mechanical drawing; also Saturday, Mr. McLaughlin can be seen regarding the bookkeeping and shorthand courses. The school opens Monday night, Oct. 5.

The board of directors of the Morgan county branch of the American Bible society met in the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon and transacted the routine business. Also arranged for the annual meeting to be held Sunday, Oct. 4, in State Street church. Rev. H. H. Oneal will preach the sermon and reports will be read from the treasurer, recording secretary and depository secretary, after which will occur the election of officers for the ensuing year. At Centenary church will be held the meeting for the east side and Rev. R. O. Post will preach the sermon. Mr. Tomlin will be the chairman of the meeting. As is the custom all the churches will unite in these meetings. The society voted to present two copies of the Bible to the public library; also to replace the depository with a complete line of Bibles and Testaments at once.

The Bible study section have arranged for the following classes, all to be held on each Tuesday evening: Beginners' class, Faith and Conduct course, C. L. Mathis, teacher; advanced class, outline study, Life of Christ course, General Secretary Coughlin, teacher; personal workers' class, Inductive Study in John, Rev. A. B. Morey, teacher. Yoke Fellow band will meet every Sunday morning from 8:30 to 9:15. Every man in the city, whether a member or not, can join these classes.

The L. D. Brown Black Silks

We are pleased to announce that we have received the agency for the justly celebrated L. D. Brown Black Silks for this city. We took the sale of these popular silks after a very careful investigation of the goods, for two good reasons; first, because we had to admit that the L. D. Brown Co. used finer silk in their goods than other makers; second, that the L. D. Brown silks were finished in a deeper, richer black than any other silks we could secure. The first shipment of these silks, consisting of Taffeta and Peau De Soie weaves, has just reached us and we invite women who want the very best in black dress silks to see these made by the L. D. Brown company.

GUIDES FOR AUTOISTS

Caution Signs Devised by American Motor League.

ALL TO BE PUT UP "CORNERWISE."

Each sign made of heavy enameled sheet steel, with black figures on white background, will be placed between 200 and 300 yards from point to which it refers.

The American Motor League has devised a series of warning signs to be put up at points along the roadside wherever conditions are such as call for reduced speed or unusual caution on the part of persons using motor cars, though in most cases these signs will be found useful to other persons making use of the roads. Each sign is to be made of heavy enameled steel, with black figures on white background, the dimensions being 24 inches square. All signs are to be put up "cornerwise," with angle at the top; this form, combined with the white enameled face of the steel, being calculated to stand out most conspicuously against any ordinary landscape. To add to this effect each post will be painted white, and the sign can thus be more easily distinguished at night by the driver of a rapidly moving car. Referring to the numbered signs shown in the cut, No. 1, indicates approach to a steep descent; No. 2, approach to a railroad crossing; No. 3, approach to a branch road (to right); No. 4, approach to branch road (to left); No. 5, approach to crossroads; No. 6, approach to a ditch or abrupt depression in the road; No. 7, approach to a hummock or "thank you" sign; No. 8, approach to a city, village or other collection of inhabited dwellings; No. 9 is a general caution sign indicating the proximity of any danger or obstruction not scheduled above, as, for example, a wrecked bridge, a temporary excavation in the roadway, a broken down vehicle in the road, the moving of a building across the highway, the presence of a crowd or assemblage of people immediately ahead or any other condition requiring caution. No. 10 is a plain, white sign and can be improvised in emergent cases by using a sheet of white cloth fastened upon a board of proper shape. Each sign is placed at a distance of not less than 200 nor more than 300 yards from the point to which it refers.

To enable automobilists at points distant from league headquarters to put up signs of wood the league has issued the following specifications, with the accompanying sketch:

"Materials needed: One board 15 1/2 feet long by 10 inches wide or 10 1/2 feet long by 15 inches wide and 1 inch thick, free from knots and other hurtful defects; one stout post 14 feet long and not less than 5 by 5 inches in dimensions; thirty-six screws 1 1/2 to 2 inches long; three half inch iron bolts long enough to pass through sign and post, allowing for nut at end; one quart good white paint mixed.

"Directions: Plane your board and cut in lengths of thirty inches, four lengths for a fifteen inch board or six lengths for a ten inch board; paint both sides; then fasten together with screws, laying the front and back pieces at right angles, as shown in the sketch; have holes through sign and post and nail them securely together so that the top of the post shall just reach the top of the sign; add two coats of white paint to both sign and post and finish by painting symbol on face of sign. Paper stencils are supplied by the league to insure uniformity in size and shape of symbols; set up sign in hole four feet deep; fill and tamp securely. The face of the sign should be turned slightly in the direction of approach, away from the point to which the sign refers, as all to make an angle of about thirty degrees with the line of the road. When completed the bottom of the sign will be about seven feet above the ground."

UNIQUE NEW NAVAL BAND.

Has One of the Most Interesting and Unique Bands in the World.

A United States navy band composed of sixteen men, not one of whom can speak a word of English, yet every one of whom is practically an American, having taken the first steps toward naturalization, is a living attraction now receiving attention at the League Island navy yard, says the Philadelphia Record. It is the first band of musicians ever recruited for the navy in Philadelphia. The task of forming the band was assigned to Lieutenant Commander Webb of the United States naval recruiting station in Philadelphia. "At first it was believed that the full complement of men could be obtained in a few days, but the fallacy of this idea was very speedily realized. When the full quota was obtained, after three weeks, Lieutenant Commander Webb gave one long sigh of relief, and the men were very soon on their way to the League Island navy yard, where they were given quarters in the temporary camp that has been constructed for marines.

The men will serve as musicians on the cruiser Minneapolis, which is at present undergoing repairs preparatory to being ordered for service as flagship for the Atlantic school squadron. There will be five vessels in the squadron, including the Panther, Yankee, Hartford and the Prairie. So far as arrangements have been perfected, they will go into commission about the middle of December. In the meantime the band will remain at League Island, and the men will go through training drill and a special course of practice in music.

The men expressed delight at entering the service of Uncle Sam, and they were made especially happy when presented with a full set of new musical instruments provided by the government. They were also measured for new uniforms.

COLONY FOR THE POOR.

Philanthropist's Plans to Found a Montana Town With Syracuseans.

John Hazeltine of Syracuse, who is well known throughout central New York as a philanthropist and first superintendent of the Municipal Lodging House of Syracuse, announced recently that he was planning to take a colony of 1,000 Syracuse people to Montana to establish a town, says the New York Times.

Mr. Hazeltine, through his charitable work, has obtained a list of practically all the poor people of the city, and it is from them that he proposes to select his colonists. He expects every one, however, to have $50 when starting on the trip. He states that he has been in communication with four families who went from this section a year ago to Montana, and it is upon their statements that he undertakes to found his town.

He says that fertile lands can easily be obtained from the government, and the question of making a good living and having a surplus at the end of the year is simply one of work. He is enthusiastic in the project, believing that the settling of western lands by poor people from eastern cities will solve the problem of relieving poverty.

Club to Make Flirting Costly.

A hundred young men of the most exclusive society in St. Petersburg have just established a club to be known as the League of the Enemies of Flirting, says the New York World. Hereafter when youthful impulse betrays a leaguer into the indiscretion of a wink or a kiss not sanctioned by the laws of strict propriety he will pay a fine of $100. A second offense will cost $1,000, and the third violation of his oath of initiation (to abjure all flirting forever) will mean expulsion. The extenuating circumstances of a fall from grace is the fact that the slanders' repentance fund goes to the poor.

Radium Experiments.
Experiments made in Vienna make it seem probable that the radium rays will soon supersede the Roentgen rays and other surgical methods in the treatment of malignant diseases and skin blemishes.

New Forest of Redwoods.
The discovery of a big forest of redwoods is reported from Curry county, in the southwestern portion of the state of Oregon. Some of the trees are said to be twenty feet in diameter.

The Gridiron Game.
Now the football gladiators are preparing for the fray. And the interest grows keener as they near the starting day. There is rallying of players who have many times won fame by their deeds of pluck and valor in the rough and tumble game.

They are steering clear of barbers, for they are cultivating hair. On the heads that in the summer they were glad to have quite bare. For such cushions they'll be needing when they fall with fearful thud. On the ground with hairless surface or so sprawling in the mud.

They are toughening the muscles that will oft be sorely tried. In the struggles with the husky fellows on the other side. Lungs they're freely exercising, so that wind they'll never lack. When they for the goal are sprinting or are swiftly running back.

Secret signals they're devising, and they're proving to be very smart. In the handling of the plays and the passes and the punts. Many hours they spend in practice, and all sorts of tricks they play. With intent to outdo the rivals they'll be meeting in the fray.

Now the football gladiators, from the north and south, are coming. Will their tactics prove so daring and so cunning as of late. Will the scores will be falling in football. As they choose the doughty players in the rough and tumble game.

NEW GROUPS OF BIRDS.

Pacific Coast Specimens Collected by an Expert.

VARIOUS SECTIONS REPRESENTED.

Five interesting sets will be added to the American Museum of Natural History in New York—How the Material Was Obtained—Environments of the Birds Closely Studied.

Frank M. Chapman, the bird man at the American Museum of Natural History in New York, has returned from his summer vacation with material for five new bird groups of the Pacific coast. Mr. Chapman had all sorts of interesting experiences in gathering this material, says the New York Times. He was accompanied by a landscape artist to make studies of the environment; a preparator, with wax and plaster molds, to make casts of such vegetation as could not be bodily removed and preserved by means of the fluid used for the purpose; and a bird artist to paint freshly killed birds and retain the brilliant coloring, which fades in the dead specimen. This artist was Louis Agassiz Fierstein. Mr. Chapman collected the material and photographed the birds, with their nests and immediate environment.

One of the groups in contemplation will be the largest and finest bird group ever yet constructed anywhere. It will show the bird life of the irrigated regions of California, which is an example of the changes wrought by man among the little people of woods and fields. The districts, formerly arid, were destitute of bird life. Water has been turned in in great quantities, changing the arid valleys into pasture lands covered with great herds of cattle. The water is allowed to stand on certain sections to fertilize them and then drawn off to others. In its wake have come enormous numbers of water birds. They follow the water as it is moved and live and breed along the irrigating ditches until these valleys, once almost desert, are alive with water birds.

The group will show various species of wild ducks, the glossy ibis (not the sacred bird of Egypt), herons, coots, black terns, Forster's terns, avocets, stilts, yellow headed blackbirds and killdeer. These names sound familiar; but, with the exception of the blackbirds and black terns, none of the birds is found in the east. The Pacific coast species all differing. The blackbird is not a water bird, but it stays so persistently among the weeds at the water's edge that it is characteristic of the scene.

These birds are very shy, for they have vast areas of solitude in which to live. The particular company on whose ranch Mr. Chapman collected this material controls 14,000,000 acres in California.

This group will be twenty feet long and eight feet high, larger than the splendid Virginia coast group, which was the banner group of last year. The ranch, located in the San Joaquin valley, afforded a background of the coast range piled majestically against the horizon. This background, with the green, level, water laced irrigated lands in the foreground, is now being painted in San Francisco by a local artist familiar with the color effects of the region and the means of reproducing them.

The second fine group will show cormorants on a rock as they swarm at the Cliff House in San Francisco or on the rocks off Cyprus point, at Monterey. Rather than try to reproduce these great rocks in miniature, it has been thought best to show a section of one, with the painting showing the great sea girt rock in the background. The cormorant is very much like a large duck. A life size cormorant head, painted by Mr. Fierstein, shows the value of the bird artist's work in such a case. The bird puffs out a bag on its throat, evidently for purposes of display. This bag, a brilliant blue in color, dries away in the dead specimen, leaving the painting the only model.

Material for a group of mountain quail and sooty grouse was gathered in the Sierras amid surroundings of the most beautiful mountain scenery, and then the party went up to Pyramid lake, in Nevada. An island in the lake is a metropolis of the pelican race, one of the last great fastnesses of the bird world. Mr. Chapman counted 4,000 young pelicans upon it. They are white pelicans, differing from their famous cousins of Pelican Island, off the Florida coast. The old birds measure eight feet from tip to tip. When America was discovered this bird was found on the Atlantic coast. It is now confined to a few inaccessible localities in the west.

Another coast region group will be one of the yellow billed magpie. This is exactly like the magpie of the old world, except that its bill is yellow. It has never been found outside of certain regions of California, and it is rapidly becoming extinct in those owing to the poison the ranchmen put out for gophers. The magpie eats either the poison or the poisoned ground squirrel and dies forthwith. Although a small bird, it builds of twigs an enormous domed nest several feet high. The nest brought away was secured from the tree with infinite pains and care, and then the collector had to visit three or four of the nests in the vicinity before he could find a box suitable for packing it. The yellow quail, or quail, will be shown in a character of New England and California. It is one of the characteristic birds of California. The botanical garden could easily be

Uncle Sam May Establish One In Porto Rico.

LUQUILLO'S WONDERS AND BEAUTY

Advantages of the Government Reservation For the First American Tropical Park as Seen by Dr. Gifford of the Forestry Bureau. Would Be a Mecca For Tourists.

Dr. John C. Gifford of the bureau of forestry of Washington and formerly of Cornell university recently sailed for the United States to report the results of his investigations in the Luquillo reservation, near the eastern coast of Porto Rico, says a San Juan special to the New York Tribune. Dr. Gifford is averse to talking for publication until he has made his official report, but from those who accompanied him on some of his trips it is learned that his researches have been full of interest. He took with him a hundred photographs and numerous specimens of vegetation. He crossed El Yunque range at its highest point, where it is probable that no white men have gone since the days of the Spanish explorers four centuries ago. The penguins who accompanied him frequently cut with their machetes a pathway through tropical growths as dense as any in South America.

In these copses the stillness of death prevailed, and, indeed, throughout the entire reservation of 12,000 acres scarcely a bird was seen, and there was no sign of animal life. In other parts of the preserve Dr. Gifford found beautiful streams, which would afford valuable power, tumbling and foaming over precipices hundreds of feet high. Where some of these streams emptied into little basins he discovered natives panning gold, from which by the crudest methods they netted from 80 cents to a dollar a day each.

Huge aromatic gum trees, forty to fifty feet high and five to six feet in diameter, were found, exuding a gum highly prized by Porto Ricans, who use it in torches for lighting purposes. In the rural districts it is often molded into candles in a crude fashion, the gum being pressed about a fiber wick. Dr. Gifford has forwarded twenty-five pounds of this gum to Washington for analysis to learn if it possesses any considerable commercial value. All the well known native fruits, plants and trees were found through the reservation in great abundance, but at present the place is so inaccessible that nothing can be brought to the seaboard except at great expense. There are no trails, and most of the journeying must be done on foot.

Dr. Gifford's wife was with him on many of his trips and proved to be an excellent pioneer. He also had with him for several days Professor O. E. Barrett, the entomologist and botanist of the United States agricultural station at Mayaguez, Porto Rico.

Professor Barrett procured numerous botanical specimens which he admits are "puzzlers" and which he is now trying to classify. He is enthusiastic over the beauties of the reservation and will doubtless make a technical report to add to that of Dr. Gifford.

It is not at all improbable that the researches of Dr. Gifford will lead to the establishing of the first national tropical park of the United States within the confines of this Luquillo reserve. It is splendidly adapted to such a purpose and could be made at comparatively small expense one of the most beautiful spots in the world and a resort for travelers from all climes, but especially from the United States, in winter. Acting Governor Hartsell and others interested in the future of Porto Rico are ardent supporters of this scheme. The Luquillo reservation, with its mountains, valleys, forests and never ending beauties, is a treasure trove for the nation. The United States government should acquire it at once. It would make the national park of Porto Rico one of the wonders of the world, and the investment would undoubtedly prove also to be profitable. The botanical garden could easily be made to exceed in beauty the famous gardens of St. Pierre, Martinique, which now lie buried under the ashes from Mount Pelee.

The reservation of the lands as a national park would prevent the granting of mining concessions or other private rights and would prevent the gold seekers, who have already been stirred by the little knowledge they have of the gold streams found by Dr. Gifford, from prospecting for the precious metal. Since a recent dispatch reported the finding of gold, many letters from the States have come to Dr. Gifford asking for further information.

Sees End to Hair and Teeth.
Dr. H. W. Wiley of the agricultural department at Washington acquired while abroad a batch of new theories, says the Chicago Record-Herald. According to the doctor, the human race is becoming hairless and toothless as the result of increased intellectuality and the prevalence of "readily chewed" health foods. He declares the day is rapidly approaching when hair and teeth will become as extinct as the dodo bird.

Lost on Him.
"You'll get building a fire trap?" asked the perplexed foreigner. "How can a house be a trap for a fire?" "It catches fire so easily. See?" said the native.

But he couldn't see—such is the unreadiness of the untrained foreign intellect in grasping the idioms of our rich and expressive language—Chicago Tribune.

OWES HIS LIFE TO A NEIGHBOR'S KINDNESS.

Mr. D. P. Daugherty, well known throughout Mercer and Sumner counties, W. Va., most likely owes his life to the kindness of a neighbor. He was almost hopelessly afflicted with diarrhoea; was attended by two physicians, who gave him little, if any, relief, when a neighbor, learning of his serious condition, brought him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured him in less than twenty-four hours. For sale by all druggists.

Sunday afternoon some scoundrels broke into East Liberty school house and damaged some of the property, besides carrying off slate pencils, sponges and other valuable articles. It is hoped they will soon be found out and duly punished.

OPEN MEETING

Will be Given at the Public Library Mr. Dana to Speak.

The first open meeting of the public library will take place next Saturday evening, when Mr. John Cotton Dana, librarian of the free public library, of Newark, N. J., will deliver an address. Mr. Dana is to speak in Indianapolis Oct. 2 and in Chicago Oct. 5.

Mr. Dana, who represents advanced ideas in library work, was born in Woodstock, Vt., in 1856, graduated from Dartmouth college in 1878, admitted to the New York bar in 1882, librarian of the Denver public library from 1889 to 1897, librarian at Springfield, Mass., in 1898, and after four years of pre-eminent successful work he accepted the appointment of librarian at Newark, N. J., which position he now holds. "A scholarly man of fine temperament, with a keen insight into the problems not only of the library world, but of life in general, radical but just in his views, with a deep sense of his relation to his environment, he has stood in the front rank of those who lead in his chosen field since he first entered the work. His personal qualifications are very attractive and a company in which he speaks is always attentive, and whether his views meet approval at the moment or not, he leaves a conviction of high purpose and deliberate judgment in what he says, so that sooner or later he convinces the majority of his hearers of the wisdom of his words." The public is most cordially invited, not only to attend this first opening meeting of the public library, but also to visit and look into the workings of the library on the day of Oct. 3. A special purchase of new books has been made—these to be displayed on this occasion. It is earnestly hoped that the people of Jacksonville will heartily co-operate with the board of directors and library staff in giving Mr. Dana a royal welcome and in making this meeting a success. The program will be as follows:

Opening remarks—J. G. Capps, president of the board.
Reply on behalf of the city—Mayor John R. Davis.

The public library of Jacksonville—Miss Seybold, librarian.
The Library's Widening Field—Mr. Dana.

Shaker screened nut coal. It will please you.

A BEAUTIFUL DISPLAY

LOVELY CREATIONS IN MILLINERY ADMIRABLE BY HUNDREDS OF DELIGHTED LADIES.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Again Acknowledged the Leaders of Fashion in Millinery in This City.

Once more Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman have favored the ladies of this city and surrounding country with a display of millinery which has eclipsed in beauty, taste and attractiveness all former efforts in that line and successfully rivaling anything to be seen in the great cities of the land. For some weeks the large force of talented trimmers, under the capable direction of Mrs. Herman, has been busily occupied with the preparation for this event, and the success has exceeded even the sanguine expectations of the host of friends and customers which this house has the good fortune to possess. Early in the morning the doors were opened and soon the admiring visitors began to arrive and all through the day and far into the evening they continued to come and one and all were unstinted in their praise of what they saw. Every person was first attracted by the show window, which was a creation of Mrs. Herman's good taste and eminent ability, and it was pronounced unequalled in the realm of fashion and style, while the goods showed that the house had spared no effort to procure all that could be desired in this line. The display was artistic and unique, as was freely admitted by all beholders. In the interior the only difficulty was the lack of room to accommodate the throng of visitors, which constantly poured in, but all were good natured and endured a little inconvenience for the sake of seeing and admiring the many lovely things displayed. The variety this season is especially noticeable; everything from the ordinary article to the most exquisite is here to be seen; nothing has been neglected. The remarkable creations and wonderful originality of the hats and bonnets shown all stamp Mr. and Mrs. Herman as the acknowledged leaders of fashion in this city and surrounding country, and it is not at all remarkable that the trade of the house has constantly increased for the past several years. Although the throng of visitors came mostly to see, the house enjoyed a good trade, many ladies being so delighted with the goods that they didn't choose to wait longer before ordering what they desired for the season's use.

In order to accommodate the throngs which will be certain to visit the opening to day, the store will be kept open until 9 in the evening.

COMES SATURDAY.

If you want to forget the cares of the world for a couple of hours, it's a ten to one shot that you will be in on "Hoity Toity" when it comes to the Grand Saturday, Oct. 3.

"Hoity Toity" may not suggest very much, but when is added the further information that it is Weber & Fields' enormously successful musical comedy, direct from their cozy little New York theatre, you know then that you are going to have the time of your life. You know that the music is bright snappy and whistable; that the chorus is wonderfully pretty; and that this same chorus sings well; that it is often and agreeably on the stage, and that it dances well. The fact that the original, difficult and intricate business of that Napoleon of stage directors, Julian Mitchell, has all been retained insures this. There is just the suggestion of a plot but it won't compel you to exert yourself in order to follow it. The conglomeration is said to be just the kind of after dinner entertainment that lovers of musical comedy insist on having.

FAMILY GATHERING.

Sunday, Sept. 20, being the last day of an extended visit of Thomas Boyer, of Baker City, Ore., all his brothers and sisters met at the home of John A. Boyer, twelve miles east of this city. These, with their respective ages, are: Lizzie Roberts, age 73; John A. Boyer, age 70; Jake Boyer, age 69; Thomas Boyer, age 65, and Burrilla Woods, age 59. Mrs. Roberts arrived here from Minneapolis, Minn., but recently. It had been forty-five years since she had seen her brother Thomas and thirty-nine years since the other sister and brothers had seen him. Others present were: John Samples and family, T. J. Luckeman and family, Cora Roberts and daughter, of Franklin; Sadie B. Cox, of Hammond, Kans.; Harvey Spires and Tom and Will Buchanan, of Pisgah.

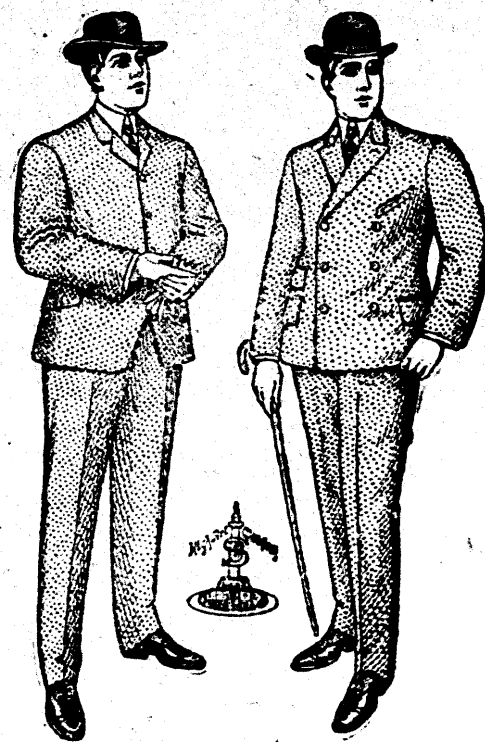

The day was spent in pleasant conversation and recalling olden times and went only too quickly, when sadness took the place of pleasure in bidding good-bye to those they might possibly never see again.
